NANA Regional Corporation, Inc. (NANA) is one of 13 Regional Alaska Native Corporations (ANCs) created pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA) of 1971. NANA is a for-profit corporation with a social mission. It is headquartered in Kotzebue, Alaska. Through ANCSA, NANA became entitled to approximately 2.2 million acres of land, both surface and subsurface estate, that the Corporation manages to the benefit of more than 14,000 Iñupiat shareholders.

THE NANA MISSION

We improve the quality of life for our people by maximizing economic growth, protecting and enhancing our lands, and promoting healthy communities with decisions, actions, and behaviors inspired by our Iñupiat Ilitqusiat values consistent with our core principles.

CORE PRINCIPLES

Our business decisions are guided by traditional values:

- Honesty and integrity will govern our activities.
- Commitments made will be fulfilled.
- Everyone will be treated with dignity and respect.

REVENUE

$1.3 BILLION in FY2016

EMPLOYMENT

5,296 ALASKANS were employed at a NANA company, partner or affiliate in 2016

THE IñUPIAT ILITQUSIAT

Each Iñupiaq is responsible for the survival of our cultural spirit, and the values and traditions through which it survives. Through our extended family we retain, teach and live our Iñupiaq way of life. With guidance and support from our elders, we teach our children the Iñupiat Ilitqusiat values.
